

MORE ON REPUBLIC OF INDIA DAY CELEBRATIONS

Diplomats came through to support one of their own during the Republic of India Day celebrations at Sibane Sami Hotel on Friday night. (Pics: Simon Shabangu)

Charge d'Affaires at the High Commission of India in Eswatini Susan Joseph makes her remarks.

Foreign Affairs and International Cooperations Minister Thuli Dladla presents a gift to a young dancer Kavya Singh while her mother Kavita and the high commissioner look on.

Joseph presents passports and VISAs to Minister of Sports, Culture and Youth Affairs Harries Bulunga on behalf of the local culture troupe which will travel to India.

Prince Guduza leads the gathering to a toast for the long life of the relations between the two countries.

Gospel artist Linda Dlamini leads a song in collaborated performance with the local culture troupe.

Part of the entertainment rendered by the India Diaspora in Eswatini.

Young Indian performer Kavya entertains guests.

Emabhaca showcase their skills during the performance of the culture troupe.

Arts and Culture CEO Stanley Dlamini, who will lead the delegation to India, in a conversation with Mathokoza Sibiya and Sithembile Zwane-Dlamini after the ceremony.

Lutsango members Nonhlanhla Dlamini and Thenjiwe Dlamini appreciate a performance by the Indian dancer.