

HIGH COMMISSION OF INDIA
MBABANE (Eswatini)

PRESS RELEASE

Information pertaining to Universities in India

High Commission of India has been receiving several enquiries from concerned parents and students about genuineness of various offers of admission and scholarships from universities in India. University Grants Commission (UGC) of India (<https://www.ugc.gov.in>) is the highest regulatory body of India regarding university education in India. The mandate of UGC includes:

- Promoting and coordinating university education.
- Determining and maintaining standards of teaching, examination and research in universities.
- Framing regulations on minimum standards of education.
- Monitoring developments in the field of collegiate and university education; disbursing grants to the universities and colleges.
- Serving as a vital link between the Union and State Governments and institutions of higher learning.
- Advising the Central and State Governments on the measures necessary for improvement of university education.

The website of UGC has listings of all universities which are permitted to operate in India. The High Commission of India advises interested students and parents to visit the website of the university/institution before taking a decision on seeking admission in a particular university.
