India’s attacks ‘justified’

Times of Eswatini · 9 May 2025 · 20

LONDON - Rishi Sunak insisted India’s attacks on ‘terrorist infrastructure’ in Pakistan are ‘justified’, yesterday. The former PM waded in amid fears the confrontation between the nuclear-armed powers could escalate dramatically. Pakistan has described Delhi’s missile attacks as an ‘act of war’ and responded with shelling on the Indian side of the line of control. However, Keir Starmer has been appealing for calm, insisting the rising tensions were a ‘serious concern’.